100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c,

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and to any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

STRICTURES

On the Character of Job, particularly on HIS PATIENCE, which was subjected to a severe trial.

Job lived probably in the days of Jacob: The account given of his substance—of his religious services—and of his age, bears strong marks of antiquity. He was an inhabitant of Arabia, where, enjoying princely possessions and regal authority, he shone in great splendour. He was the patron of the oppressed; but the scourge of the oppressor. He knew the true God, whom he uniformly served and obeyed. Abounding in good works, he was revered by the righteous, but dreaded by the wicked.—This servant of God, so faithful, so pious, so kind, fell into an abyss of misery. His substance and children; his health and honors fled in a moment, and left him poor and childless, sick and despised.

On a day, and that day, a festival which commemorated the birth of his eldest son, when the heart expands at the recollection of past joy, and the anticipation of joys to come, his sky was suddenly overcast.—From that black cloud a storm arose, whose violence he could not withstand. He was overwhelmed, and left a perfect wreck. His oxen and asses were driven away by the Sabbeans; his sheep and servants were consumed by fire from Heaven; his camels were a prey to the Chaldeans, who, in different companies invaded his possessions; A whirlwind from the wilderness smote the four corners of the house, where his sons and daughters were feasting, which falling, buried them in its ruins; ulcers covering his body were so tormenting that he could not rest day nor night. Neither intermission nor end to his suffering! what a situation! vials of wrath from earth and hell were at once poured upon him! nothing on this side the grave can be conceived more intolerable.

With what temper did he meet such a reverse? with the impatience of a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke?—or the blasphemy of the wicked whom affliction cannot tame?—no,—he cherished an abiding sense of the wisdom and goodness, of the power and mercy of God. He could not account for the steps of Providence, which were in the sea, but determined "Tho' he slay me yet will I trust in him."

His feelings were excited—irritated—and inflamed; he rent his mantle,—shaved his head,—fell on the ground,—expressions of mourning usual at that time; still he submitted. The cause of his affliction he could not explain; nor foresee the issue.—Surely the Judge of all the earth hath done right; it is impious to accuse him of injustice, it is presumptuous to say to him, what doest thou? Job could not contend with his maker, it was his language, "Naked "came I out of my mother's womb, and "naked shall I return thither. The Lord "gave, and the Lord hath taken away: "blessed be the name of the Lord. In all "this Job sinned not, nor charged God "foolishly."

His patience was observed by the wife of his bosom with contempt. Can you bless him who lets his curse fall upon you?—can you think him good who has destroyed your family and estate?—can you speak of mercy, when after every submission you remain a terror to yourself and to all about you?—you get nothing by his service but disgrace and ruin, curse God and die!—Job little expected such language, and from such a quarter. It was abhorrent to his soul; and repelled with calmness: Thou speakest as a woman void of understanding. I can take nothing ill which comes from God; the more good I have received, the less reason have I to complain when I suffer evil. I can never under any grievance, entertain other sentiments of God, than those of respect and veneration.

Job encountered, with equal success, the hostile attack of three of his most intimate friends, and these too men of rank,—character—and piety. Eliphaz, Bildad and Zophar heard of the evil which had befallen their friend and at an appointed time came to mourn with him, and to comfort him. "And when they lifted up their eyes "afar off, and knew him not, they lifted "up their voice and wept; and they rent "every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust "upon their heads towards heaven. So "they sat down with him upon the ground, "seven days and seven nights, and none "spake a word unto him; for they saw "that his grief was very great." Nothing could convey a stronger idea of Job's wretchedness than the astonishment of his friends, and their silence for so long a period. Job first found words, and uttered his complaint in the most bitter lamentation. Upon which his friends expressed their apprehension, that such affliction incurred by atrocious crimes, was a divine judgment upon an abandoned hypocrite: This Job denied—this his friends maintained—the dispute was managed with great boldness of thought, and strength of expression; Job asserted his integrity in so positive a manner, that his friends altho' not convinced, were reduced to silence.

Having lost his substance—his children and his health; suspected and reproached, it is not surprising that his mind was greatly agitated; yet his piety forsook him not: He is allowed by God himself, to have spoken better of Divine Providence than his friends had done—a full evidence that in his extremity he never once lost good thoughts of God, and submission to his will.

Job's conduct met the approbation of God, who bestowed upon him great riches and perfect security. His character was extolled in a meeting of the saints: but an enemy was present, who questioned its value; yes, Job serves himself, not his God. His substance, gives him the command of what he pleaseth, and is so secured by an Almighty arm, that no evil can reach him; but let him be stript of all, and fall into distress, and not in his heart only; but in words, the most insulting, he will deny and vilify a Divine Providence. To bring this to the test, Job was exposed.—His enemy was permitted to afflict him in any manner, and to any degree, only let his life be preserved. On this permission, he did what malice and powers, astonishing to us, could effect. He was tossed on a troubled ocean, wave succeeding wave, with impetuous and increasing fury, dashed against him, in horrid commotion, to overwhelm the helpless sufferer; but he stood unmoved as a rock; the waves were broken, and thrown back in foam.

QUARTERLY REVIEW.

The following is the concluding paragraph of a long article in the Edinburgh Scotsman, on the manner in which this country is spoken of by the Quarterly Reviewers:—Patriot.

"The short career of the United States has thrown more light on the theory of government, than the experience of centuries. But the truths it exhibits are gall and wormwood to the hirelings of power.—Without it we might have believed that rotten burghs are the soundest parts of a constitution, and that a fair and full representation is visionary nonsense. Delolme's doctrine might have passed, that it is only the strong executive of a monarchy which can indulge its subjects in great liberties of speech and conduct, while a republic is necessarily suspicious and severe; and that in a democracy the people must become the prey of quacks, under whom neither person nor property could be secure. To the confusion of all these theorists, however, persons and property are more secure in the United States than any where else, if we may judge from the rate at which both multiply. The interests of the people are found to thrive wonderfully under their own care; and political quacks find so little encouragement there, that they are almost the only class which never emigrate from this happy country. The government, so far from being jealous and cruel, is the mildest and most liberal that ever existed in the world. It creates no fictitious plots, nourishes no host of spies, or mercenary reviewers, and has contributed to get through a stormy period without the legitimate help of a gibbet, so indispensable to the strong monarchies of the old world."

A Norfolk paper of the 18th inst. states, that a duel was fought in an adjoining county on Friday the 20th inst. between Mr. Bushrod Boswell of this place, and Samuel Q. Richardson, esq. of Cincinnati. Mr. R's right arm was broken; Mr. B. escaped his antagonist's fire.

A powder mill, in East Hartford, (Con.) belonging to a Mr. John Mather, was blown up on Thursday last, and a Mr. Perry, the foreman, was killed with the explosion.

Doylestown, August 23.

A distressing accident, and little reconcileable to the views of man, occurred in Buckingham on the 17th inst. which forcibly calls to mind the uncertainty of life, in the bloom of health. JOSEPH KIRK, in the 26th year of his age, came to an untimely end, while in the act of confining a cow in a corner of the fence by means of a rail, for the purpose of rendering some relief to a diseased foot. The cow in order to free herself, made a violent effort against the rail, which he held at one end—knocked him down, and fractured his skull a little below the left ear. No other visible marks of injury were received. The blood gushed from his ear and nose—he was immediately taken into the house, bled, and every means used for his relief; means, however, were ineffectual—he was only heard to say, "O dear!" after the fatal accident. In about 2½ hours he breathed no more.—His life and conversation were harmless, and spoke the purity of his intentions.—His remains were interred in Friends' burying ground at Wrightstown—leaving a disconsolate widow with two infant babes, and numerous relations and acquaintances, to lament his untimely end.

Lancaster, (Pa.) Aug. 21

We are sorry to hear that an infant daughter of Mr. JAMES MACSPARRAN, in Littlebritain, was killed by lightning on the 13th instant, while playing with an iron chain before the door of her father's dwelling. It is remarkable, that no rain was falling within some miles of the place, at the time of this fatal occurence.

The N. York National Advocate states, that preparations are making by the British to put Upper and Lower Canada in a strong posture of defence. The duke of Richmond is now in the Upper province, and several fortifications are now erecting in different points. The Isle au Noix is strongly garrisoned, and upwards of 12,000 tons of ordnance stores have arrived from England this year. A report prevailed in Canada that the recruiting service was going on briskly in the United States. These ostensibly warlike indications amount to nothing. [Franklin Gazette.

Mr. G. B. Miller, of Water-street, has, we understand, introduced a snuff, called the American Gentleman; and from the rapidity of its sale, we should not be surprised if he accumulated as large a fortune as he who introduced the Irish Blackguard.

ORIIGINAL ANECDOTE.

An innocent country boy who had listened sometime, with admiration, to the dulcet sounds of the Fiddle and Triangle, at the Cincinnati Museum, was induced to inquire of the door-keeper the price of admittance. He was told that children were charged 12½ cents, and although he had a manly appearance, he should be considered a child and be admitted accordingly. The boy, after a short pause, innocently inquired if he would take a fippennybit, for, says he, there are many of your curiosities that I see daily—for instance, the Cony in yon window, that points its ugly snout this way, is quite common in our neighborhood, as is also your blackbird, and your owl, &c. but there are some, no doubt, I have never seen; at those, I promise you, I will look but with one eye. Will you admit me for a fip? The boy was turned away, cruel as it may seem.

FROM ENGLAND.

The beautiful and fast sailing ship Mercury, Capt. G. I. Prince, in 38 days from Liverpool, arrived at this port last night, by which arrival we have received the latest Liverpool paper, List, &c.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS, July 10.

The quantity of Plantation Sugar offered this week by auction has again been more than sufficient for the demand, and of 1200 hhds. brought forward, about 1000 have been sold, at a reduction of 6d. to 1s. per cwt. Nothing has been done by private. No sales have been effected this week in Molasses. The business done in Foreign Sugar is confined to the sale of a few boxes of soft yellow Havana at 31s 3d to 34s 9d, and 30 chests and 120 bbls. of Brazil at 27s for brown, 34s to 38s for ordinary white, and 41s per cwt. for middling.—Our Coffee market continues in a very fluctuating and unsettled state; in the early part of the week 100 casks of St. Domingo were sold at 110s. and 60 casks and 1100 bags, deliverable here from London, at the same price, and 500 bags and bbls. Havana, of middling and good quality, at 112s.; but yesterday no buyers appeared for 1000 bbls. and bags pale Cheribon, and 400 casks and bags of Dutch, offered at auction; the Cheribon is held at 105s. without drawback; afterwards, 100 bags of middling Dutch were taken by the grocers at 116s 6d to 117s. and a few lots damaged and ordinary triage at 40s a 86s per cwt.—The market upon the whole may be considered rather lower, and has closed heavily, but it is uncertain if purchases to any extent could be effected at any material reduction from the prices obtained early in the week, particularly as the accounts from London this morning are again favorable to an improvement. A few bags Brazil Cocoa have been sold at 48s. per cwt. and 800 bags Pimento at 7d per lb.—Very little has been done in Rum; a small parcel of choice Jamaica has obtained 3s 4d per gallon for 16s O. P.—About 120 tons Logwood have been sold at 6*l.* 5*s.* to 6*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* for Jamaica, and 7*l.* and 7*l.* 5*s.* for St. Domingo and Campeachy, in other descriptions of Dyewoods very little has been done. There is more inquiry for Hides, but as the holders are firm in their demands, the sales have been inconsiderable, and consist of about 2000 Rio, at 5½d for very inferior, to 6½d per lb. for good quality. 14 seroons low Guatimala Indigo have been sold by auction at 3s to 3s 8d per lb.

There has been a steady demand for Cotton this week, and the prices of all descriptions have been fully supported.—The sales amount to about 6300 bags, (of which 1500 have been taken on speculation and for export,) viz. 280 Sea Island at 2s a 2s 5d and 2s 9d and 30 stained at 12½d and 13d—800 Pernambuco 16½d to 18½d—250 Bahia 16½d to 17d—300 Maranham 15½d to 16d—200 Demerara 13½d to 16½d 20 Barbadoes 13d—10 St. Domingo 12½d 1000 Orleans 11½d to 13½d. and 200 at 14½d to 16½d—2800 Bowed 11½ to 13d. and 10 at 13½d—60 Surat 8¼d to 9½d. and 350 Bengals at 6½d to 8½d per lb. We experience a fair demand for most descriptions of Tobacco from the trade; there is also something doing for export, 60 hhds. Kentucky Leaf have been sold by auction at 3d to 3½d per lb. and 200 hhds. Virginia have been taken at 4d for ordinary, and 5d for middling quality. Early in the week Carolina Rice was in request, and sales were effected at 22s to 22s 6d; yesterday 200 casks of good quality went off by auction at 20s 6d to 21s 6d per cwt.; 800 bags of Java, free for home use, have been sold at 14s to 14s 6d, and 1200 bags of Bengal have been taken at 17s 9d to 19s per cwt. Pot Ashes continue dull, and are declining; a small lot of Montreal has been sold at a decline of 1s to 2s. 170 brls. of New-York having been disposed of at 43s 3d to 43s 6d per cwt.—2600 brls. Turpentine have been sold at 11s 9d to 12s 6d per cwt. No sales have been made in Tar. Philadelphia Quercitron Bark of good quality have been sold at 18s 6d per cwt. There has been a fair demand for Pine Timber, but prices are rather lower; a cargo of Nova Scotia was offered by auction this morning, and part sold at 20d to 21d per foot. A cargo of Swedish and Finland Deals have sold at 18*l.* and a parcel of Swedish Timber at 2s 4d per foot.

Mediterranean Produce still continues in very limited request. About 100 tons brimstone have been sold at 24*l.* per ton, and common Sicily Shumac is taken at 21s per cwt. The demand for tallow is limited, but prices are steady. Fish oils continue dull. Pale Seal has been sold in quantity at 35*l.* and at 36*l.* per ton for small parcels. Cod Oil is difficult of sale, but 36*l.* per ton has been paid for moderate quantities. Seed Oils are steady.

At our Corn Exchange on Tuesday, in consequence of the weather having become more settled, the demand was very limited, and very few sales were effected, and it is probable that purchases might have been made on lower terms; during the week, business has continued dull, and in to-day's market scarcely any thing was done. In our quotations we make but little difference, except for sour flour, which we reduce 1s to 2s per cwt.

LONDON MARKETS, July 9.

The plantation Sugar market has been heavy during the week, and purchases may be made at a reduction of 1s to 2s per cwt. it should however, be remarked, that several extensive holders will not submit to the decline. The demand for refined sugar has been limited, and a few sales have been made on lower terms. Very few purchases have occurred in Havana and Brazil Sugar; East India descriptions have been sold at the following rates, viz. Bengal white at 43s. to 49s. yellow 33s to 40s. and brown 22s 6d to 28s. Bourbon at 39s to 46s and strong Java at 41s to 47s per cwt.—The coffee market continues very unsettled; yesterday the public sale went off with more briskness, and at higher prices than on Wednesday; on Demerara and Berbice the advance was from 3s. to 5s. and on Jamaica 2s per cwt; good ordinary Brazil brought 115s. and St. Domingo of fair quality 114s 6d per cwt. There has been no public sale this forenoon; the private demand is very limited, and the market again looks heavy. The sale of Coffee at the India House went off at 105 to 114s for Mocha, (privilege,) and Cheribon was withdrawn at 116s to 119s per cwt.—The rum market continues heavy, and the imports are much larger than had been anticipated. Brandy is rather declining.

The demand for cotton has considerably improved, particularly for parcels suitable for export, and Bengals cannot now be purchased under 6½ per lb. The sales of the week consist of 406 Perhambuco at 17½ to 20d—30 Demerara at 17d—20 Berbice at 14½d—and in bond 50 Surat at 6½ to 8d—and 800 Bengal at 6¼d to 7 5-8 per lb. The sale of Rice at the India House have been effected at 13s 6d to 14s 6d for white Bengal, and 11s 6d to 12s for yellow, and 14s 6d to 16s 6d per cwt. for Madagascar.—27 barrels Quebec Pot Ashes have been sold at 34s 6d to 35s, and 240 barrels Swedish Pearl at 32s to 33s per cwt.—The prices of Greenland Whale Oil to arrive are advancing, and 34*l.* to 35*l.* per ton is demanded. Southern Oil is also higher, but Sperm has declined. The arrivals of Foreign Tallow are considerable, and the market is in consequence heavy.—The Town-market is 6d per cwt. higher than last week.

There were considerable supplies of Suffolk Wheat at this day's market, and higher prices were at first asked, but towards the close of the market Wednesday's prices were accepted.—Oats sold very readily, particularly the fine samples, but no improvement was obtained.—There were few sales made in barley.—Pease and beans fully supported the currency of Monday.

Liverpool, 7th July, 1819.

JEREMIAH THOMPSON,

Since our respects of the 3d inst. we have had a good demand for Cotton, both on speculation and from the trade, and the holders of Upland and New Orleans are daily less willing to sell at the prices of the preceding day. The advance on these descriptions during the last two days, is ½d per lb. We quote Upland 11d a 13d; New-Orleans 11d a 15d, and Sea Island 1s 11d a 3s. per lb. Tar is dull at 12s 6d a 15s bbl. About 1200 bbls. of fair Turpentine have been sold in the last few days at 11s a 12s 6d. Ashes are in limited demand—Boston, Pot, 40s a 41s; New-York and Montreal 38s a 39s. Pearls 43s a 44s 6d. Our Grain Market is very dull to day in consequence of the improvement of the weather, and both wheat and flour are rather lower.—Sweet Flour in bond, sells at 30s a 33s.—For Wheat in bond, 7s 6d a 8s per bushel, is asked. Sour Flour out of bond, is held at 32s a 35s.—We quote Carolina Rice, 22s a 23s per cwt. About 2400 bushels of Indian Corn of middling to good quality have been sold at 3s 5d 3s 10d to day, but small quantities could not be purchased under 4s per bushel.—Kentucky and low leaf Tobacco have been in some demand on speculation, and the market has exhibited some symptoms of improvement in the last two days.

We are respectfully your assured friends
RATHBONE, HODGSON & CO.

July 10th.—The Cotton Market has been dull the last two days, and several purchases of Upland and New-Orleans have been made at a reduction of ¼ per lb. yesterday 200 casks of good new Carolina Rice were sold at 20s a 21s 6d per cwt. in bond. About 3000 barrels of Turpentine have been sold in the course of the week 11s 9d a 12s 6d per cwt. Some sales of Montreal Pot Ashes have been at 38s per cwt.; and about 250 bbls. of Pearls have been sold at 43s 3d a 44s per cwt. for New-York, and 42s 6d for one small parcel of Montreal. The speculative enquiry for Tobacco has continued. Grain is extremely dull at our quotations.

An ordinance has been issued at Copenhagen, exacting penalties against those enlisting in foreign service.

The capital of the Wechabites has been demolished, the Chief beheaded, and his relations allowed to settle in Cairo.

The London Courier remarks, in reply to the Morning Chronicle, that it would be a libel upon the heroic achievements of the British navy, to notice them with the enterprises of such a man as Lord Cochrane.

The last quarterly report of the King of England's health, states his bodily health to be firm, without any visible alteration.

The suicides in Paris, in January, February, March and April, amount to 124, 41 more than last year.

On the night of the 7th of July, says the Courier, the Cockney astronomers were all gazing at the comet, Some of them saw it in the South, and some in the North.

A dreadful accident happened to Madame Blanchard, at Paris. On the evening of the 6th ult. in spite of a good deal of wind, she ascended in a baloon at Tivoli, and went up amidst the concern of thousands of spectators. On the light being extinguished, the fire-works exploded, and the balloon was seen in a dark cloud, for an instant, when it took fire from a spark. Madame B. was precipitated to the earth with the utmost velocity; she fell in a small street near Mont Blanc; when taken up she was not quite dead, but literally dashed to pieces; every surgical aid was given, but to no purpose; she survived but a few minutes. A subscription for her family was set on foot.

Died,

On Wednesday evening last, WILLIAM COOPER, merchant, aged about 30 years, a native of England, but for a few years past a resident of this town. In the prime of life, in the enjoyment of health, and engaged in commercial business, he accidentally received a fall which terminated his existence in forty eight hours. By the urbanity of his manners, his correct and gentlemanly deportment, he gained the respect and esteem of all who knew him.—Though he died in a foreign land, with no relatives to weep over his grave, his remains were followed by a numerous acquaintance, attended by his masonic brethren, who, in paying the last tribute of respect to his memory, evinced their sorrow for his untimely loss

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trowsers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks I will give fifty dollars if apprehened in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the district of Fredericksburg, in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell, at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next,
4000 Acres of Land,
lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg. The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Picket, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington.
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26

For Sale,

TWO tracts of valuable land in Durham Parish, Charles County, Maryland opposite Nanjemoy Reach—one of these tracts of land is bounded on one side by the Potomac, has a valuable fishery, and contains about 360 acres of bottom, with a quantity of wood that ought to be cut.—The other is about three-fourths of a mile from the river, from one half to two thirds covered with wood and valuable white-oak timber, and contains about 700 acres. Both tracts have an orchard of choice fruit. The above land will be sold at Charles County Court, on THURSDAY in the third week of August next at Public sale, if not sold before, at private sale.—The terms will be made known at the sale. Timber or wood may be purchased any time previous to the sale.
